

Blue, blue, blue

Text: Heinz Beckers / Übersetzung: Hans-Joachim Fuhrig

Musik: Detlev Jöcker

1. Blue, blue, blue,
the sky is blue and bright.

Blue, blue, blue,
the sea is blue today.

Blue, blue, blue,
the sky and sea are blue.

That's not all,
I can do some more.

2. Green, green, green,
grass is green in the summer.

Green, green, green,
trees are green in spring.

Green, green, green,
grass and trees are green.

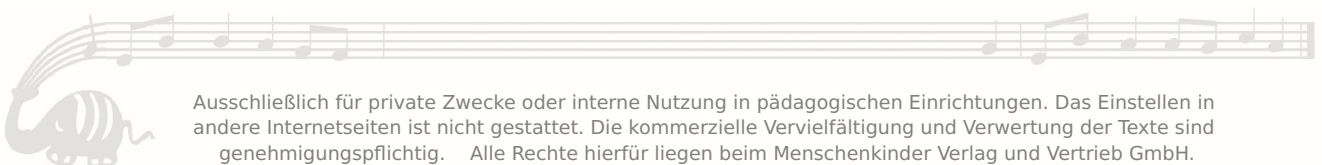

That's not all,
I can do some more.

3. White, white, white,
the snow is white in winter.

White, white, white,
the clouds are white. Look up.

White, white, white,
snow and clouds are white.

That's not all,
I can do some more.

4. Red, red, red,
the rose is red in summer.

Red, red, red,
the evening sky is red.

Red, red, red,
the rose and sky are red.

That's not all,
I can do some more.

5. Pink, pink, pink,
cheeks are pink and rosy.

Pink, pink, pink,
pigs are pink and clean.

Pink, pink, pink
cheeks and pigs are pink.

That's not all,
I can do some more.
